Schneider Electric, the leader in the digital transformation of energy management and automation, and Smartworld Developers Pvt. Ltd., a new age real estate developer headquartered in Gurugram, today announced the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) for driving 360 degree home automation in the latter's upcoming projects. Through this collaboration, Smartworld Developers will build positive impact homes with lower waste and healthier interiors by incorporating smart product lines from Schneider Electric, which includes Wiser Smart Homes, Modular Switches, etc.

In line with its core value of delivering smart homes, Smartworld Developer will leverage a wide range of products and solutions by Schneider Electric to provide state-of-the-art technology to their customers. Schneider Electric would complement the supply and service of products and solutions with a quarterly training and upskilling programme for the staff of Smartworld Developers.

Sharing his thoughts on the partnership, Yifu Qi, Executive Vice President, the Home & Distribution Division, at Schneider Electric, said, "At Schneider Electric, our constant endeavor is to help homebuilders achieve their sustainability goals through safe and energy-efficient products and solutions. As we face challenges in terms of climate change, we believe it is our responsibility to be conscious citizens, even when it comes to our homes. We are happy to partner with Smartworld Developers to deliver smart solutions to build the home of the future and support sustainability." Mr. Srinivas Shanbhogue, Vice President, of Home and Distribution, Schneider Electric India added,

"The signing of this MoU with Smartworld Developers is a momentous occasion for the future of home automation and the building ecosystem in the country. Such an association goes to show that the builders and, consequently, the end-customers are increasingly looking for sustainable home automation solutions that enhance lifestyle along with reducing their carbon footprint. I am sure that this partnership will significantly contribute towards making the real estate industry SMART, resilient, and sustainable.” Commenting on the collaboration, Vivek Singhal, CEO of Smartworld Developers, shared, “A smart home ecosystem is a future. With over 4000 homes already under construction and another 15000 homes to be added in the next two years, at Smartworld one of our key differentiators is our approach towards the development of homes that are SMART. Our collaboration with Schneider Electric is a step towards providing our patrons, with smart and sustainable homes that will not only augment their lifestyle but will contribute towards India’s goal of reducing the emissions intensity of its GDP by 45% of the 2005 baseline by 2030” Incorporated in 2021, Smartworld Developers is a professionally driven real estate company that is acclaimed for implementing corporate governance at all levels.
