Simplilearn, the world's #1 online Bootcamp for digital economy skills, is determined to bridge the prevailing digital skills gap. In addition to its world-class, outcome-led learning programs, the company is also hosting a series of webinars in December 2022 for working professionals and fresh graduates looking to explore better career opportunities. The webinars will focus on Simplilearn's program previews, like university-collaboration Bootcamps, as well as sessions on Career Trends for 2023, Interview Prep sessions, and more.

Simplilearn's webinars feature expert speakers drawn from different aspects of industry and academia. They have included CXO-level executives and senior managers from large and small companies, company founders and entrepreneurs, and university faculty members. Our live webinars afford attendees the opportunity to interact with the speakers in a live question-and-answer period.

The upcoming webinars this month include:

- Launch Your Blockchain Career in Six Months with UMN | 01-Dec-22
- How to Build a Cloud Computing Career with Caltech CTME | 07-Dec-22
- Why DSA is Vital in Software Interviews with Top Companies | 08-Dec-22
- Why Cybersecurity Should be Your Career Move in 2023 | 14-Dec-22
- Digital Marketing Trends Impacting Your Career in 2023 | 15-Dec-22
- 2023 AI & Technology Trends: Enabling Next Generation Experiences | 20-Dec-22

- Creating a Mindset for Career Success in 2023 | 21-Dec-22

Each webinar will have a specific area of focus to provide the learners with insights to build strong careers and gain a better understanding of the need and possibility to upskill for the same. The sessions, spanned over the month, cover product previews, learner-focused career webinars, and interview prep sessions, which will provide a holistic learning experience for professionals and freshers alike. While the product sessions will help learners understand the nuances and benefits of upskilling with Simplilearn, the career and interview-focused sessions will help learners understand market trends and requirements and strengthen their presentation and soft skills to ace the interview process. Simplilearn conducts more than 3000 live classes per month, with an average of 70,000 learners who collectively spend more than 500,000 hours each month on the platform. Programs offered by Simplilearn give learners the opportunity to upskill and get certified in popular domains.
